Alexandra Badgett of Denver earned the title of Miss North Carolina 2019 on June 22nd, representing the city of Jacksonville. Alexandra earned over $20,000 in scholarships from her participation with the Miss North Carolina Organization in June. A graduate of the University of South Carolina with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, Alex's social initiative, N.I.N.E, No Is Not Enough, aims to deepen the message of the anti-rape anthem “no means no.” As Miss North Carolina, she plans to implement an “EPIC” marketing plan; stressing the importance of educating individuals on preventive measures and public policies, providing survivor outlets, informing students of resources and confirming Title IX Regulations are being followed.

Alexandra will represent the Tarheel State at the upcoming Miss America Competition.

2019 Fairmont Farmers Festival Grand Marshal
Ben Brady

The 2019 Fairmont Farmers Festival Grand Marshal is Ben Brady. Mr. Brady grew up in Fairmont and graduated from Fairmont High School in 1970. He was Student Body President and played football, basketball and baseball. He graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Pharmacy in 1975. Mr. Brady began his pharmacy career at the Duke University Medical Center in 1975. He bought Webster’s Pharmacy in 1978 and operated as an independent pharmacy for 37 years. Mr. Brady sold the business to Fred’s Pharmacy in December 2014 and remained as pharmacy manager until his retirement in December 2018.

He has been married to Norene Sealy Brady for 39 years. They have three children and six grandchildren.

Mr. Brady says “Fairmont will always be my home and what I miss the most from my career are the many customers/friends I was privileged to serve on Main Street for over 40 years. I am grateful and truly blessed to have been an active part of this community for so long.”

Celebrating Agriculture at the Fairmont Farmers Festival

The 33rd annual Fairmont Farmers Festival will be held on Saturday, October 19, 2019. Plenty of activities are planned for this year’s festival including a pageant, parade, various entertainment, car show, truck show, arts and crafts, and lots of food.

The Fairmont Farmers Festival Scholarship Pageant will be held on Saturday, October 12 and will crown seven queens for the titles of Wee, Mini, Little, Tiny, Junior, Teen and Miss. The pageant will be held at 2:00 p.m. in the E.R. Gause Auditorium at Rosenwald Elementary School in Fairmont. Admission is $5.00 and pageant program books are $5.00.

The Fairmont Chamber of Commerce is hosting the 4th annual SFC Matthew McClintock Memorial Golf Tournament at Fairmont Golf Club on Friday, October 18. Registration and opening ceremonies is at 10:00 a.m. with a Special Forces parachute jump at 11:15 and play begins with a shotgun start at 12:00 p.m. Registration is $65 per player and includes tournament, lunch, dinner and drinks. For more information, contact Tony Mackey at Fairmont Golf Club, 910-628-9931, Mark Madden at 910-628-7840 or Chamber President Kelly Johnson, 910-770-1967.

The Festival kicks off on the 19th with the parade at 10:00 a.m. featuring Grand Marshal Ben Brady, several Shriner groups, and plenty of beautiful queens including Miss North Carolina Alexandra Badgett. Following the parade, you can eat lunch from a variety of different food vendors, browse the multitude of arts and crafts, view classic cars and lifted trucks at the car and truck shows and enjoy kids’ activities including bounce houses. There will be music by the Tim Clark Band starting at 12 noon at First Bank! Everything will be located downtown on Main Street this year, just like classic festivals of the past!

We would like to thank all our sponsors for supporting the festival!
